

Amanda C. Williams

Special Counsel

amandawilliams@parkerpoe.com

t 843.727.6309

Amanda Williams represents employers in disputes involving alleged discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, and wage and hour violations. She also has extensive experience in litigation matters involving professional malpractice and various contractual and tort disputes.

Amanda earned her law degree from Louisiana State University where she served as senior editor for the Louisiana Law Review and received the W. Lee Hargrave Award for most outstanding service on law review.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Represented employers in disputes arising from allegations of race, sex, national origin, age, and disability discrimination, as well as wage and hour class actions.
- Defended claims involving wrongful discharge, retaliation, breach of contract, and infliction of emotional distress.
- Represented professionals, including lawyers, insurance agents, appraisers, and accountants, in the defense of professional liability claims.
- Defended claims arising from contractual and business disputes.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- "2014 South Carolina Women Lawyers Association 20th Anniversary Conference," Chair

HONORS

- South Carolina Super Lawyers Rising Star, 2016-2017
- Star of the Quarter Award, South Carolina Young Lawyers Division

CHARLESTON OFFICE

PRACTICE AREAS

Employment & Labor
Litigation
Professional Negligence
Defense

EDUCATION

Louisiana State University
JD, BCL, 2007
Clemson University
BS, magna cum laude, 2004

ADMISSIONS

South Carolina, 2007

Amanda C. Williams

Special Counsel

amandawilliams@parkerpoe.com

t 843.727.6309

MEMBERSHIPS

- South Carolina Women Lawyers Association, Board of Directors, 2013-present