

Scott E. Leo

Partner

scottleo@parkerpoe.com

t 704.335.9858

Scott Leo focuses his practice in the areas of general governmental, water and sewer system, municipal enterprise, higher education, health care, and industrial development finance. In addition to his legal experience, he served for several years as an assistant to the county manager in Wake County, North Carolina.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Experienced with fixed rate and variable rate financings as well as with respect to general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, installment purchase financings, lease financings, and certificates of participation financings.
- Served as bank counsel in transactions involving financial derivative products, such as forward purchase agreements, and transactions involving letters of credit and liquidity facilities.
- Routinely assists local government clients with financial transactions and other matters.

CLIENT ALERTS

- "IRS Releases Notice Liberalizing Private Use Rules for Management Contracts," October 2014

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- "Rule 15c2-12 Amendment: Ensuring Compliance With Your Continuing Disclosure Undertakings," Parker Poe Webinar, January 2019

HONORS

- American College of Bond Counsel, Fellow
- The Best Lawyers in America in Public Finance Law, 2008-2020
- North Carolina Super Lawyers, 2006, 2008

CHARLOTTE OFFICE

PRACTICE AREAS

Public Finance

EDUCATION

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
JD, 1997

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
MPA, 1993

North Carolina State University
BA, cum laude, 1990

ADMISSIONS

North Carolina, 1997

Scott E. Leo

Partner

scottleo@parkerpoe.com

t 704.335.9858

MEMBERSHIPS

- Social Venture Partners (SVP) Charlotte, Board of Directors, 2019-present
- National Association of Bond Lawyers