

Faye A. Flowers

Special Counsel

fayeflowers@parkerpoe.com

t 803.253.8912

Faye Flowers represents both public and private entities on issues of regulatory compliance and administrative procedures.

While at the University of South Carolina, Ms. Flowers was the Note and Case Editor of the South Carolina Law Review.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Advising hospitals and other providers regarding a variety of legal issues including patient rights, employment and personnel matters, medical staff issues, confidentiality of medical records, risk management, malpractice and general contract issues
- Advising health care providers on a variety of issues including Medicaid and Medicare reimbursement and fraud and abuse matters
- Representing clients in administrative proceedings before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court
- Counseling vendors and governmental entities regarding state and local procurement matters
- Advising public and private entities on aspects of government contracting and assisting clients in drafting contracts with governmental entities

HONORS

- Martindale-Hubbell BV® Distinguished™ in Health Law; Government Contracts; Administrative Hearings and Appeals
- Phi Beta Kappa
- Order of the Coif
- Order of the Wig and Robe
- Note and Case Editor, South Carolina Law Review

COLUMBIA OFFICE

PRACTICE AREAS

Government & Public Policy
Administrative Law

EDUCATION

University of South Carolina
JD, 1982
University of South Carolina
BS, cum laude, 1978

ADMISSIONS

South Carolina, 1983

Faye A. Flowers

Special Counsel

fayeflowers@parkerpoe.com

t 803.253.8912

MEMBERSHIPS

- South Carolina Procurement Review Panel, General Counsel, 1987-1993
- South Carolina Senate Ethics Committee, Counsel, 1993

