

Richard L. Few Jr.

Partner

richardfew@parkerpoe.com

t 864.577.6363

Richard Few's practice includes strategic tax planning and structuring business mergers, sales, acquisitions and reorganizations, economic development, and commercial and public financings. In addition, he is involved in transactions providing economic incentives to businesses relocating or expanding in South Carolina and in transactions providing income or other tax credits for development of real estate projects.

CLIENT ALERTS

- "S.C. Avoids Accounting Nightmare for 2018 Tax Returns and Expands Tax Credits for Economic Development," October 2018

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- "Big Changes in Partnership Tax Audits and How They Impact LLC Agreements," Parker Poe Tax Forum, November 2017

HONORS

- Woodward/White's The Best Lawyers in America "Lawyer of the Year" in Greenville for Mergers & Acquisitions Law, 2019
- Woodward/White's The Best Lawyers in America in Corporate Law, 2012-2019; Mergers & Acquisitions Law, 2018-2019
- Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers in Corporate/Mergers & Acquisitions, 2009-2018
- Greenville Business Magazine's Legal Elite, Tax, 2014, 2015
- Henri Dunant Award for Outstanding Male Volunteer in 1988
- Martindale-Hubbell AV Preeminent Rating in Economic Development; Public Finance; Securities; Banking Law; Business Transactions

GREENVILLE OFFICE

PRACTICE AREAS

- Tax
- Banking & Capital Markets
- Public Finance
- Mergers, Acquisitions & Joint Ventures
- Securities & Corporate Governance
- International Business
- New Markets Tax Credits
- Federal Tax

EDUCATION

- Suffolk University
JD, 1978
- Boston University
Master of Laws in Taxation,
1979
- Boston University
BA, 1975

ADMISSIONS

- South Carolina, 1979
- Massachusetts, 1978