

Katherine H. Graham

Associate

katherinegraham@parkerpoe.com

t 704.335.9893

Katherine Graham is a litigator with a diverse practice, representing clients in civil and criminal litigation as well as arbitration. She has experience in general commercial and contract litigation, complex business disputes, white collar criminal defense, professional negligence and tort defense, products liability defense, and personal injury and wrongful death defense. She regularly assists clients in a variety of industries, including banking and finance, manufacturing, and health care. She is admitted to practice in all state and federal courts in North Carolina.

Prior to joining Parker Poe, Katherine received her combined law degree and Master of Laws in international and comparative law from the Duke University School of Law, where she served on the Mock Trial Board and engaged in significant pro bono efforts on behalf of the North Carolina Innocence Project and Duke's Guantanamo Defense Clinic. During her time at Duke, she served as a judicial extern with the Rwandan Supreme Court and a prosecutorial extern at the Rwandan Public Prosecution Authority in Kigali, Rwanda, where she focused her work on assisting in the remaining domestic genocide and crimes against humanity cases.

Preceding law school, Katherine received her Master of Science in comparative politics with a specialty in conflict studies from the London School of Economics and Political Science, where her dissertation "Why Sequencing Matters: Peace Versus Justice in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Uganda, and Liberia" received a distinction.

Katherine is a member of Parker Poe's Recruiting Committee, Associates Committee, and Community Service Committee.

CLIENT ALERTS

- "What Businesses Need to Know About Government Investigations in 2019," February 2019
- "What the U.S. Supreme Court's Cell Tower Ruling Means for the Intersection of Privacy and Modern Technology," July 2018
- "Know Before You Go: Complying With U.S. Export Regulations When Traveling Abroad," September 2017

CHARLOTTE OFFICE

PRACTICE AREAS

- Litigation
- International Dispute Resolution
- International Business Antitrust & Trade Regulation
- Government Investigations & White Collar Defense
- False Claims Act Investigations & Whistleblower Defense
- International Trade & Anti-Corruption Compliance
- Professional Negligence Defense
- Product Liability & Mass Tort
- Class Action Defense

EDUCATION

- Duke University JD, cum laude, 2015
- Duke University LLM, cum laude, 2015
- London School of Economics and Political Science MSc, passed with merit, 2012

Katherine H. Graham

Associate

katherinegraham@parkerpoe.com

t 704.335.9893

- "Trading With Cuba: Time to Light Up the Cohibas?", February 2017

PUBLICATIONS

- "Managing International Investigations: Conceptions of Attorney-Client Privilege and Their Effect on Internal Investigations," TerraLex Connections, October 2017

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- "Why Compliance? Reducing the Impact of Consequences When the Unthinkable Happens," Parker Poe Webinar, January 2019
- "Why Compliance? Reducing the Impact of Consequences When the Unthinkable Happens," Parker Poe Governance, Risk & Compliance Symposium, September 2018
- "International Arbitration: Why Cut and Paste Will Cost You," Association of Corporate Counsel, February 2018

MEMBERSHIPS

- North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys, Member
- North Carolina Bar Association, Newsletter Committee Co-Chair for the International Law & Practice Section
- Theatre Charlotte, Board of Directors