

Carlos E. Manzano

Associate

carlosmanzano@parkerpoe.com

t 919.835.4016

Carlos Manzano represents clients in municipal bond financings, including general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, limited obligation bonds, and installment financings. Carlos works with local governments, investment banks, schools, universities, colleges, hospitals, and continuing care retirement communities to help them achieve their financial objectives.

Carlos received his law degree from Duke University School of Law. While at Duke, Carlos was a member of the Duke Blockchain Lab, executive editor of the Alaska Law Review, and a board member for the Transactional Law Competition. Carlos received his undergraduate degree and master's degree from Florida State University. He is also fluent in Spanish.

PUBLICATIONS

- "Racing to Regulation: A Comparative Analysis of Virtual Currency Regulation in Alaska And the Proposed Alaska Money Services Act," Alaska Law Review, 2018

RALEIGH OFFICE

PRACTICE AREAS

Public Finance
Fintech

EDUCATION

Duke University
JD, cum laude, 2019
Florida State University
MS, 2013
Florida State University
BS, magna cum laude, 2012

ADMISSIONS

North Carolina